

Weekly Newsletter 11

Newsletter Date
1st December 2017

Value of the week

Our value next week is Co-operation. This will be discussed in our assemblies, but also through topic learning in classes. Children will be able to earn golden tickets this week for being able to demonstrate co-operation with others in the classroom, and in the playground.

Autumn Term report and Parents' Evening

Your child's Autumn Term report is being sent home this evening in book bags. The report contains a slip to request an appointment. If you are happy with the report and have nothing you wish to discuss, or the teacher hasn't requested a meeting with you, you may not need to come into school for this. Please return this slip on Monday to the class teacher so that times can be arranged and returned to you. Parents' Evening is 6th December 3.30-6.30pm

Christmas Card post box

This will be available on Monday. Please make sure any Christmas cards have the child's first name and letter of surname on the envelope, along with either the teacher's name or class bird name. Please write the recipient's name inside the card also.

Contact

Please ensure your contact phone numbers are up to date with the school office, but also whether we have an accurate record of who the acceptable people are, for collecting your child. Reminder Infant children should never be collected by children under the age of 16.

We will be sending a TEST text message to all parents this evening. This message will be free to reply to. Please reply so that we can see who is getting the messages without problems. Our system tells us we have sent the message but not who has received them. Some parents have reported that they have not received our text messages about clubs recently.
